Overview

This short self-assessment is based on the Academies Financial Handbook updated in October 2013. It is designed mainly for new academies, and those at the pre-opening stage, to help them ensure compliance with the requirements of the Academies Financial Handbook that apply upon or shortly after opening, including requirements incumbent on the accounting officer and board / delegated committees.

The requirements within the checklist apply from the date on which the funding agreement was signed so academies should ideally consider and complete an FMGS return pre-opening. Academies that have done so often highlight the benefits of this.

Feedback from academies that have completed the FMGS return shows that it is a very useful tool for new academies when setting up their financial management and governance arrangements, and provides helpful assurance to the board of trustees that arrangements meet the mandatory requirements. It will also help you create an action plan to address any areas of non-compliance identified.

Submission of the FMGS return to the EFA is a one-off requirement that applies to all new academies. Some academies may be able to provide alternative assurance in place of an FMGS return, as explained below. The completed FMGS return must be submitted to the EFA within four months of the date on which your academy opened.

Whilst submission to the EFA is a one-off requirement, many academies find it beneficial to refer back to the FMGS template periodically to recheck that they are compliant with mandatory requirements. Academies should also refer to the Academies Financial Handbook.

Alternative assurance in place of a completed FMGS return

As an alternative to completing this self-assessment, you may contact us to agree an alternative method of providing assurance. This may be relevant for example if:

- you are joining an existing multi-academy trust that has previously prepared audited accounts and you plan to adopt the same financial management and governance arrangements that apply across the trust. In this case, your accounting officer may write to us to confirm the above. The EFA will then seek to take assurance from the audited accounts received
- you appoint your auditor to assess compliance with mandatory financial management and governance requirements and the report is provided to EFA

The accountability framework

Your funding agreement and the Academies Financial Handbook describe the accountability framework for academies. The Handbook sets out all of the financial accountability requirements that apply to academies.

Considering good practice

The Handbook merely outlines the requirements that you must comply with and the minimum standards of good practice that must be applied. The EFA expects academies to look beyond these minimum requirements to example of best practice. To help you design your own financial management and governance arrangements, you may want to contact other academies, partner organisations, or your auditor. We have included links to sources of information and support in the Handbook.

If you have any questions about the FMGS or its submission please contact the Enquiry Service quoting 'FMGS submission'.

Endorsing and evidencing your self-assessment

Your board of trustees, or an appropriate delegated committee, must endorse your self-assessment. Evidence in support of your self-assessment may include policy and procedure documents, formal minutes and contractual or appointment documents. As part of the EFA assurance programme, we may choose to visit your academy to review the evidence used to inform your self-assessment. We will contact you to confirm the arrangements for our visit should we include your academy in our programme.
